

Dr Craig Emerson

Eminent Economist, Former Australian Minister & Public Policy Expert

Dr. Craig Emerson is a renowned economist with over 40 years of experience in public policy and politics. Dr. Emerson is in high demand as a keynote speaker, sharing insights on global economics, policy, and the future of international trade. With his extensive background advising government leaders and his academic expertise, he delivers powerful, thought-provoking presentations that inspire and inform audiences.

---

Dr. Craig Emerson is a highly respected economist with over 40 years of experience in public policy, politics, and public service. He is the Managing Director of Emerson Economics Pty Ltd, and holds key academic positions, including Director of the Australian APEC Study Centre at RMIT University and Adjunct Professor at Victoria University.

A former Australian Minister for Trade and Competitiveness, Dr. Emerson was the architect of the White Paper on Australia in the Asian Century and led major regulatory reforms in business regulation. He has advised Prime Minister Bob Hawke, chaired key government reform groups, and served as a senior public servant in Queensland and at the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet.

Dr. Emerson also writes a fortnightly column for The Australian Financial Review, offering expert analysis on economics and policy.

View Speaker's Bio Online

